Jonathan Terrell is President of KCIC, LLC and its affiliate The Kenesis Group, LLC. In addition to leading the companies' day to day operations, Mr. Terrell is an expert in the financial evaluation of insurance assets, including the credit analysis of insurance companies, and assists clients with strategic business decisions.

Experience

Mr. Terrell has over 20 years of financial services experience gained in London, New York, Paris, and Washington, DC, with specific expertise in the insurance industry.

Mr. Terrell's multi-disciplined background in accounting, finance and insurance, and extensive experience evaluating corporate liability and insurance assets has established him as an expert in his field. At KCIC, he has helped numerous Fortune 500 companies develop strategies related to the management of insurance assets and risk-transfer. The deployment of such strategies has a direct impact on a company's bottom-line and long-term financial planning and stability.

Mr. Terrell has been retained as an expert in cases involving asbestos, noise induced-hearing loss and environmental liabilities. He has addressed the value of the liability, the value of the related insurance asset and the complex allocations of such liability to the assets. In addition, he is in demand to give expert testimony relating to the credit risk of insurance companies. Mr. Terrell partners with in-house and outside counsel on all aspects of complex, multi-party insurance-related litigation and bankruptcy trust arrangements.

Prior to founding KCIC, Mr. Terrell was an executive vice president with Zurich Financial Services. At Zurich Financial Services, he developed and was responsible for the Focused Strategies Group, a unique division that brought together engineers, attorneys, and MBAs specializing in the valuation of complex insurance liabilities. Mr. Terrell also served as a vice president in JPMorgan's Capital Strategy and Quantitative Analysis Group, and has worked in the accountancy practices of Price Waterhouse and Ernst & Young.
